

Chapter 20. Transformation of Sentences

Exercise 1. Rewrite the following sentences as directed:

1. How famished and ill the child looked! (Write as an assertive sentence.)

---

2. All your answers are irrelevant. (Begin with None)

---

3. The doctor advised a digital x-ray to detect the problem.
(Use so that)

---

4. She is too graceful to behave so arrogantly. (Remove too)

---

5. The manager permitted him to leave early. (Use permission)

---

6. These two words are pronounced similarly. (Use similar)

---

7. Being rich, they could afford that luxury car. (Write as a complex sentence)

---

8. He missed the opportunity he got. (Use but)

---

9. You should take a balanced diet so that you may remain fit. (Use or)

---

10. This is not the way in which our senior citizens should be treated.
(Write as a simple sentence)

Exercise 2. Rewrite the following sentences as directed:

1. I wish our countrymen were more responsible. (Write as an exclamatory sentence.)

---

2. What a feast of colours the flower show presented! (Write as an assertive sentence.)

---

3. This Chinese furniture is stylish but it is not durable. (Use Although.)

---

4. We found this report very informative. (Use information.)

---

5. He is a quiet and efficient worker. (Use quietly and efficiently.)

---

6. We organised a concert by Kailash Kher so that we could raise funds for a new swimming pool. (Write as a simple sentence.)

---

---

7. He disliked falsehood, therefore he spoke the truth. (Use because.)

---

8. Nobody will be allowed to enter without an identity card. (Write as a complex sentence.)

---

9. His success is certain. (Use certainly.)

---

10. He gave a very impressive speech. (Write as an exclamatory sentence.)