

Chapter 24. Words Followed by Appropriate Prepositions

Exercise 1. Fill in the blanks with suitable prepositions:

1. His stationery shop is adjacent _____ the school building.
2. The manager was astonished _____ the cleverness of the assistant's answer.
3. Are you aware _____ the latest changes in the syllabus?
4. Some trade unions are bent _____ a strike.
5. The Delhi team was certain _____ winning the Ranji Trophy final.
6. All these facts should be committed _____ memory.
7. My friend willingly complied _____ my request.
8. The audience was composed _____ school students waiting for their board results.
9. She conceded a very crucial point _____ her rival and lost the match.
10. You may come to see me _____ any time convenient _____ you.
11. She was guilty _____ giving false evidence.
12. Goods made in India are no longer inferior _____ imported goods.
13. It is our duty to be loyal _____ our country.
14. Mrs Pathak is very popular _____ her students.
15. The neighbours got suspicious _____ their movements and

Exercise 2. Correct the following sentences:

1. I reached at Delhi only this morning.

---

2. Why have you picked up a quarrel with him?

---

3. He asked from me if I had a copy of Pride and Prejudice.

---

4. Let us discuss about the problem.

---

5. Copy this letter word by word.

---

6. She insisted to leave immediately.

---

7. She succeeded to get a good job.

---

8. I prefer him over my other friends.

---

9. I do not believe on what you say.

---

10. We want to dispose our old furniture.

---