

Chapter 4. Verbs: Expressing the Future

Exercise 1. Fill in the blanks with will or going to using the verbs given in the brackets:

1. Everything looks hazy to me. I think I _____. (faint)
2. What _____ next in the story? (happen)
3. Look, a lot of water has got into the boat. I am afraid it _____ . (sink)
4. What _____ at the party on Sunday? (you wear)
I haven't decided yet.
5. Why do you need so much wallpaper?
We _____ our house. (decorate)
6. What _____ if you fall short of money? I _____ my father to give me some. (you do, ask)
7. How will you pay for the car you want to purchase?
I _____ a car loan from the State Bank of India.
(take)
8. He has decided that he _____ the job. He says that he _____ here for one more year. (not resign, work)
9. I can lend you some money if you need it.
Thank you. I _____ you back by Sunday evening.
(pay)
10. These muddy Delhi roads! My new shirt has been spoiled.
Don't worry. I _____ it clean for you. (wash)

Exercise 2. Fill in the blanks with the simple present or the simple future forms of the verbs given in the brackets:

1. The Principal _____ any action until the enquiry report _____ out. (not take, be)
2. I _____ the tickets as soon as I _____ a green signal from you. (book, get)
3. We _____ this car as soon as we _____ enough money. (change, have)
4. I _____ you my camera if you _____ to return it by Sunday evening. (lend, promise)
5. When the train _____ at the next station, we _____ some eatables. (halt, buy)
6. They _____ the match when the pitch _____ up. (resume, dry)
7. The door _____ unless you _____ it hard. (not open, push)
8. I _____ to watch this movie provided you _____ me. (go, accompany)
9. Who _____ the work when you _____ on leave? (supervise, go)
10. What _____ if you _____ any suitable accommodation? (you do, not get)