

Chapter 20. Active and Passive Voice

Exercise 1. Change these sentences from active to passive voice:

1. We keep our valuables safe in a bank locker.

---

2. Experience teaches valuable lessons.

---

3. A constable is regulating the traffic movement.

---

4. The supervisor was giving instructions to the workmen.

---

5. A tourist guide will explain the important features.

---

6. The teacher issued two library tickets to each student.

---

7. The cashier had already verified all the bills.

---

8. We have just packed the apples in the cartons.

---

9. The Principal has announced the names of the prize-winners.

---

10. These steps will reduce pollution levels.

---

11. Which disease does smoking cause?

---

12. Who pulled the chain?

---

13. Have you read this strange news?

---

14. How are they raising funds?

---

15. Which model of the new Innova did you buy?

---

16. How many invitation cards did you send?

---

17. How much money did you deposit in the bank?

---

18. Why has he hit this little dog?

---

19. How much time do you need to finish this work?

---

20. Where are they building the new flyover?

---

Exercise 2. Change these sentences from passive to active voice:

1. These dogs are trained by the police to track criminals.

---

2. The room is being cleaned by the attendant.

---

3. Only the top two candidates were offered the job.

---

4. The mistakes were not pointed out (by the teacher).

---

5. All arrangements for her wedding have been made.

---

6. A notice will be sent to all the parents.

---

7. The prices of these flats will be revised next month.

---

8. All the children below five were given pulse polio drops.

---

9. Important cases are decided by the minister himself.

---

10. A special prize is given for good behaviour.

---

11. These roads will be widened during the next two years.

---

12. Was the mistake detected by anybody?

---

13. Have you been given any role in the play?

---

14. Were the candidates called for any interview?

---

15. Who was this letter signed by?

---

16. How was the missing dog traced by the police?

---

17. How many buses were hired by the school?

---

18. Have the staff members been consulted?

---

19. Why were you not granted leave?

---

20. You are requested to keep the environment clean.

---